

The GAL Xlokk Foundation (GXF) would like to welcome on board new private members interested to form part of the Local Action Group (LAG).

During a Decision Committee meeting held on the 26th November 2020, the Board members have agreed that the call for new private members remains open until 9th December 2020, at noon.

Local entrepreneurs, agro-alimentary producers, farmers, artisans, artists, voluntary organisations, private entities, operators involved in rural experiences and/or the hospitality industry within the Xlokk (South-East) territory are encouraged to fill in the below application form and send a copy to info@galxlokk.com.

If you have a direct interest in agriculture, SMEs, rural economy, agro-tourism and environment amongst others, you are encouraged to become a GXF member and increase your chance to exchange experiences and learn about the role of local action groups within the Maltese islands.

The rural localities that fall within the foundation's territory are: Luqa, Kirkop, Mqabba, Kalkara, Santa Lucija, Birzebbuga, Qormi, Xghajra, Qrendi, Ghaxaq, Zejtun, Marsaskala, Marsaxlokk, Zabbar, Zurrieq, Gudja and Safi.

Adhesion Letter – GAL XLOKK Foundation Members

I, the undersigned, would like to become a member of the GAL XLOKK Foundation that administers the LEADER programme under the Rural Development Programme for Malta, being able to attend for the Annual General meeting and to contest any future posts within the Decision Committee Board of the LAG.
